Summary of reasons
for classification:

The DVD Amanda's Diary is classified as:
Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years.

The DVD contains a feature that is identical to the video recording previously examined and classified by The Office of Film and Literature Classification. The feature Amanda's Diary (OFLC No. 9900673) was classified as: Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years. The descriptive note given was: Contains explicit sex scenes. This decision was registered on 27 April 1999.

The DVD has additional components listed by a menu providing options and facilities. The feature can be viewed by scene selection; there is a report containing interviews with the stars which also contains scenes of explicit sex; there are six trailers also containing sex activities; and a photobook contains 28 explicit images taken from the feature. These extra components do not provide grounds to alter the classification given to the original version of the publication.
